

A View from the Hill

A Letter from the Mayor

Dear Residents of Rock Hill,

I know many of you have been looking forward to the opening of the new Aldi Location at Manchester and McKnight. As you'll see below, they are dealing with the continuing effects of Covid and the supply chain issues that are still causing havoc on many areas. As an Aldi shopper myself, I will be counting down to their new opening in 2023. While I wait, I am looking forward to having Eckert's back in that space this summer.

Mark your calendar for April 5, the date of the Municipal Election. For a list of what will be on the ballot, click here. For a list of polling places as well as a line count to know when the line is at the shortest wait time, click here.

If you missed our March Coffee with the Mayor Guest, check out information about L'Arche St. Louis below:

L'Arche St. Louis has moved its headquarters to an 11,000 square foot building in Brentwood with plans to grow and broaden its support of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities in the St. Louis region.

Celebrating its 10th year in the St. Louis region, L'Arche St. Louis has purchased an 11,000 square foot building in Brentwood at 9445 Litzsinger Road to serve as the nonprofit's new headquarters, allowing for expanded services and support of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities in the area.

L'Arche St. Louis was founded in 2011 by local families to provide lifetime homes to adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities. L'Arche St. Louis currently has three local homes – two in Maplewood and one in Webster Groves where adults with and without disabilities live together in neighborhood homes. The new property will serve as L'Arche's administrative and educational center, enabling the organization to grow its outreach efforts and other programming.
