

A View from the Hill

A Letter from the Mayor

Dear Residents of Rock Hill,

The City is currently offering three options to attend virtual meetings covering the Financial State of the City. If you missed the first one, we are offering two additional dates: Thursdays, Nov. 19 and Dec. 3 from 6:30-8:30 p.m. All of the presentations are the same, so we are asking you to attend one. We will be uploading the presentation to the website as well. For additional information on logging on click here.

As always, please feel free to reach out to me with any questions: 314-561-4317, emahan@rockhillmo.net.

I also want to invite you to Coffee with the Mayor via Facebook Live this Wednesday, Nov. 18 at 6 p.m.

Many Rock Hill restaurants are offering curbside pick up as well as outdoor dining. Be sure to check them out.

Rock Hill Public Library

The library is happy to safely serve our community! We are still open for Curbside Service only—pick up free disposable masks, books, DVDs, and more Monday-Friday from 12-6 PM and Saturdays from 10 AM-2 PM via our contactless service.

Prefer to stay at home? No worries, we've got you covered! Download the Hoopla and Libby apps to start reading, watching, and listening at home.

Need other activities to do? Sign up for award-winning naturalist Mark Glenshaw's owl program on Zoom November 19 at 7 PM to learn all about these majestic creatures, how to spot them in the wild, and more.

Be sure to join us for the last gentle online yoga class of the year with Alicia on November 25 at 8 PM—beginners are welcome to attend!

Our newest Cooking by the Books video premieres on Facebook and our website on Monday, December 7, and cooking fanatics can continue the fun on Friday, December 11 at 7 PM for Food for Thought. Grab your favorite drink, relax, and chat with the star of Cooking by the Books and other fellow foodies about recipes and more.

Can't make it to our live Zoom programs? Access prerecorded Guided Meditation, Chair Yoga, and Cooking by the Books videos 24/7 on our website.

For kids in grades K-5, we offer a new Take and Make Craft every month. Give us a call at 314-962-4723 for availability and check out our previous craft tutorials on our website.
