A View from the Hill

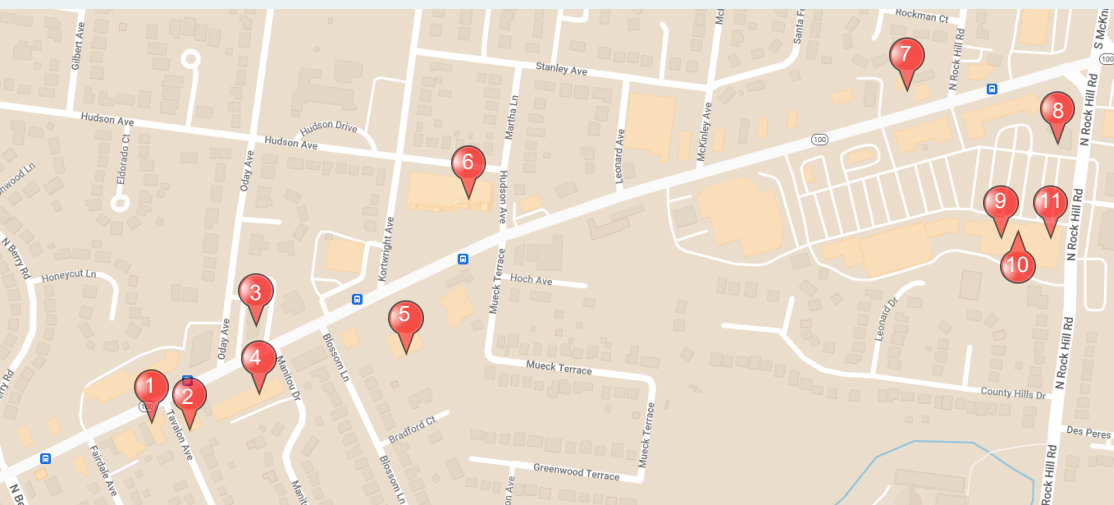

A Letter from the Mayor

Dear Residents of Rock Hill,
I would like to designate this month's Newsletter to the businesses in Rock Hill and give an update to the new construction in the city. You'll see below, we have some new development happening and we look forward to all the businesses that have opened over the last couple of months as well as those still planning to open. You can't miss the work being done at the corner of Manchester and McKnight. Aldi still plans to open in the new year with two new businesses, F45 and Foss Swim School opening next to them. Two Rock Hill businesses are staying in the City with new locations, Bloomin' Buckets moved to the corner of Manchester and Tavalon Ave and the American Bank located next to Papa John's will be moving to the old McDonalds location. I encourage you to check out the businesses as they open in Rock Hill and give them a big welcome.

-Edward Mahan, Mayor; emahan@rockhillmo.net or 314-561-4317
