Please read the instructions for liquor licenses carefully, as some things have changed, and please use the attached checklist to confirm that you have all necessary documents. We cannot issue a liquor license until the proper background check and all other supporting documents are complete.

New applicants or renewals that have a change in owner or management must provide:

- a full fingerprint background check completed by the Missouri State Highway Patrol (MSHP) (for a list of locations, go to <https://www.machs.mo.gov/MACHSFP/wizard.html> and use registration number 9998)
- copy of driver's license
- copy of voter registration card
- letter from company naming the applicant as the managing partner

In order to be approved for renewal before your license expires, we must receive your completed application and fees by June 1, 2025.

If you have any questions, please contact me directly at 314-561-4303.

Regards,

Amy Perrin
Assistant City Administrator/City Clerk
